

Amrita-Seattle & Tasveer present “Our Children in Sunderban, India”

Participate in the campaign for Children’s education – tell us your dream for children.

Amrita-Seattle

Live to Serve

We present two thought provoking children-theme films

Suk Bahadur Class IV

&

Theke Pe Kya Karte Ho (What Business here?)

Thursday October 14th, 2010, 6:00-7:00pm

Microsoft café 34

3720 159th Ave NE Redmond, WA 98052

Suk Bahadur Class IV

(Dil Bhusan Pathak, Nepal, 2005, 23min)

Even after 50 years experience as a driver in India from the colonial period to independent India, Suk Bahadur is now studying in class IV with his grand daughter in Kaski, the western region of Nepal.

Theke Pe Kya Karte Ho (What Business Here?)

(Spandan Banerjee, India, 2008, 6min, DV)

Livelihood is the answer that Rajiv, Monu and Sagar would give to the question posed by the film "thekey pe kya karte ho". Their homes are in the nearby 'Jagdamba Camp' located right behind the Sheikh Sarai Market, New Delhi, the place where the these children spend the formative years of their childhood opening beer bottles for the never-ending customers at the local wine and beer shop.